Jealous Man's Queer Freak.

A man named Hours has been ar-rested at Venice, Cal., charged with shaving the head of his bride in a fit of jealous rage to make her look unattractive in the eyes of other men. The bride, who is only seventeen, and much younger than her busband, com-plained that he overpowered her. clipped her tresses close, and then applied lather and rapor until her head "looked like a billiard ball."

Overheard.

Miss Ouldgirl—"Now, if I should find a man under my bed, I'd simply tell him to marry me or I'd shoot." Miss Peilte—"Then you would simply be arrested for murder."—Judge.

Putting the Matter Plainly.

Putting the Matter Plainly.

He was an old-fashioned father, which explains why he said to the young man: "Are you sure you're able to give my daughter the comforts and luxuries to which she is accustomed at home?" To which the young man promptly replied: "As your daughter's salary has paid the rent and bought most of the clothes and food for your family. I think we and food for your family, I think we can worry along."

Great Poet Fast Worker. Byron worked fast. He once a publisher that he was like a tiger, and if he missed his first spring went would be heard to his lair." Many Byron worked fast. He once told "grumbling back to his lair." Many of his works were written at fever heat when the first spring did not miss. "The Corsair" occupied ten days, and two rainy days at Ouchy were sufficient to produce the "Prisoner of Chillon." The "Bride of Abydos," though revised afterward, was at first the work of only four nights, and most of his poems, in fact, were impromptus.

Not Hard to Deceive Moslems. Times have changed since Captain Burton, 60 years ago, made a pil-grimage to Mecca at the peril of his life. A recent account of such a pil-grimage, by A. J. B. Wavell says that with a passable knowledge of Arabia and of Moslem ceremonial, and with due precautions as to avoiding pit-grims from the country to which one pretends to belong, "the pilgrimage to Mecca may be made in disguise without running any risk worth mostless." out running any risk worth mentionIt Seemed to Her.

NAMES OF TAXABLE PARTY OF TAXABLE PARTY OF TAXABLE PARTY.

A peddler with horse and wagon was going through our street. The peddler was loudly calling his wares, while nobody seemed to pay any at-tention to him. Thoughtfully Jeannette, aged two and a half years, turned and said: "Mamma, what is that man singing to his horse for?"

Varied Weights in Use. Gems, the most preclous of earth's productions, have been weighed from time immemorial with uncertain and varying weights. The first gem weights of which we have records were seeds of uniform size from the fruit of the Kusra or coral tree and from the free the carob or locust tree, which ed in Africa for weighing gold a ter in the cast for weighing diamonds.

Trying to Be Resigned. "So you've lost your nice pussy cat." sympathized grandma, hearing sad news. "Too bad! I know how you loved him. You miss him dreadfully, I suppose?" "Oh, yes, I miss him some," skryear-old John replied, with some," sir-year-old John replied, with an air of chastened sorrow, "but then, grandma, since I've heard so much about this germ business I try to think it's just as well."
